

Be the change you wish to see in the world!

Delta Kappa Nu is a social sorority based in Australia, which is focused on social and philanthropic activities to improve members' lives.

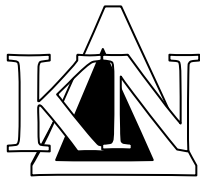

In reality, it means a group of wonderful women who get together on a regular basis, to share and celebrate their lives and make a charitable contribution to worthy causes.

Becoming a member of Delta Kappa Nu

Sisters are selected based on their contributions to society and their ability to contribute to their chapters. Delta Kappa Nu is a non-hazing sorority, and welcoming to those of the LGBT community. We are open to all religions, political persuasions or philosophies. Forget what you have seen in the movies, a sorority woman can be anyone, in any shape, who has the dedication and sisterly spirit to contribute.
